

Ever Thought About Becoming a Trustee?

Sevington Victorian School, the living history museum near Leigh Delamere and Grittleton, which many local schools use, is looking for new trustees. Sevington is unique, and this is a rare opportunity to get involved with the school that time forgot. A perfect time capsule with a fascinating history, it's been called Wiltshire's best kept secret. We're looking for people with a passion for history or an interest in education to join our hard-working team of trustees in looking after the wonderful building and preparing for the visiting schools who come to take part in the magical Sevington experience.
